

Patti Pacholek

Patti is a lawyer by trade. Over her 25 year legal career she has practiced law with a major law firm, did securities litigation and regulation for the Saskatchewan Securities Commission and most recently worked with a public insurance company. Patti also has extensive professional and volunteer board experience ranging from local and national museum boards to health and communications boards. Patti is well versed in the workings of independent tribunals and the principles of natural justice. She values and promotes good governance operating with a high degree of integrity and fairness.

Patti has been a director since 2014.