

Sandra L. Schulz, Q.C., LL.M.
Chartered Mediator

Since taking her initial mediation training in 1991, Sandra has mediated over one thousand commercial, family and insurance cases and taken hundreds of hours of advanced mediation training. Sandra has a Masters of Law (Dispute Resolution Specialty) from Osgoode Hall Law School and continues to expand her mediation skills through ongoing education.

Sandra was admitted to the Alberta Bar in 1983 and conducted a general litigation practice (personal injury, commercial, estate and family law) for approximately 20 years before leaving private practice to work full time as a mediator, arbitrator, and meeting facilitator. She teaches Mediation Advocacy at the Faculty of Law, University of Alberta. As a volunteer, Sandra participated in the consultation process that created the Civil Mediation Program for the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta. In the spring of 2008, Sandra joined Alberta Justice and is currently Senior Legal Counsel for the Dispute Resolution Unit, overseeing the civil non- family mediation programs and working on the development of a dispute resolution policy for Court Services.
