PRE-CONFERENCE WORKSHOP
INTERPRETING STATUTES I
MAY 3-4, 2005 8:30 AM - 4:30 PM
UNIVERSITY OF ALBERTA

Developed and presented by David Elliott, arbitrator and legislative draftsman, this two-day workshop introduces a method for interpreting legislation and regulations. The method, based on the Supreme Court of Canada's modern approach to interpretation, combines theory with practice, giving participants a sound foundation to tackle interpretation questions.

The workshop will include:

- what you need to know before starting to interpret legislation,
- how to unravel complicated text, and
- a template for tackling the interpretation of legislation.
