

Chief Appeals Commissioner

Appeals Commission for Alberta Workers' Compensation

Alberta Labour, Edmonton/Calgary. The Minister of Labour is seeking applications from individuals interested in serving as a Chief Appeals Commissioner of Alberta Workers' Compensation.

Offices are located in both Edmonton and Calgary. Candidates should be available to travel throughout the province as required.

The Appeals Commission for Alberta Workers' Compensation is a government entity established under the Workers' Compensation Act as the final level of appeal from decisions of the Workers' Compensation Board. The Appeals Commission has jurisdiction to examine, inquire into, hear and determine all matters and questions arising under the Act in respect to appeals from decisions under section 46, section 120 and determinations under section 21(3).

In this senior official role you will provide strategic leadership to a significant quasi-judicial administrative tribunal which is an integral part of the workers' compensation system in Alberta. As Chair of the Commission and the Chief Executive Officer, you will lead the continuing development of the tribunal as a fair, consistent and independent body that issues balanced decisions. Your extensive senior management experience is key in fulfilling the responsibilities of guiding the strategic, operational and financial direction of the Commission to meet the needs of workers, employers and the public.

The Chief Appeals Commissioner is directly involved with the administration of legislation related to the business of the commission and other legislation related to leadership responsibilities and delegated authorities. Related legislation includes the Workers' Compensation Act, Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act and the Revised Statutes of Alberta (RSA) 2000.

Appointments are for a maximum term of three years.

Skills and Experience Required

You have extensive executive management experience and are recognized as an influential and highly credible leader. Your widely diversified background includes experience in quasi-judicial, arbitration, mediation or dispute resolution environments.

Your working knowledge of the application and interpretation of legislation and related policies and procedures is essential for this role. With a track record of exercising sound and consistent judgment, you have demonstrated expertise in managing complex issues with integrity and fairness.

Related post-secondary education is required.

Final candidates will be asked to undergo a comprehensive background check, disclosure, and conflict of interest screening.

Remuneration and Time Commitment

The Chief Appeals Commissioner is a full time position. The appointment is recommended by the Minister of Labour and made by an Order in Council approved by the Lieutenant Governor, pursuant to the Workers' Compensation Act.

This Senior Official position has a salary range of $184,365 - $249,435 per annum.

Travel expenses will be paid in accordance with the Government of Alberta's Travel, Meal and Hospitality Expense Directive.

Offices are located in both Edmonton and Calgary. Candidates should be available to travel throughout the province as required.
